

There's a reason why 2.8 million New Jersey residence signed up for the Do Not Call List. The people of NJ do not feel that there is a problem with the States rules being stronger or more strict than the federal laws on this matter. Please do not overturn my states laws on this. I can't say I have heard anyone complain about the law other than the tele-marketers themselves.